INTRODUCTION TO THE MARKET ABUSE REGULATION

25 September 2026
09:00 to 11:00 CET

This course offers a comprehensive introduction to the Market Abuse Regulation, providing an overview for individuals unfamiliar with the Regulation. It covers the three main offences: insider dealing, unlawful disclosure of inside information, and market manipulation. The course also explores the various obligations imposed on market participants, with a focus on key themes such as inside information. Participants will gain a general understanding of the Malta Financial Services Authority (MFSA)'s role in overseeing market abuse and the sanctions that apply. Practical examples will be used throughout the course to help illustrate the concepts and issues discussed.
