DIFFERENT SOURCES OF RAISING CAPITAL

26 October 2026
09:00 to 12:00 CET

Raising capital is a crucial yet challenging aspect of business growth. This course provides an overview of the various sources of finance available to businesses, including capital markets, bank finance, private placements, and business angels. Focusing primarily on the capital markets in Malta, the course will explore the practical challenges businesses face when seeking funding and offer insights into how they navigate these obstacles. Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the financing options available and the strategies for successfully raising capital to support business expansion.
