

Online Course

CLIFF PACE

AN INTRODUCTION TO FUNDS AND ETFs

4 & 5 November 2026

09:00 to 12:00 CET

This course provides a comprehensive overview of Open-Ended Funds and Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), popular tools for building diversified, cost-effective investment portfolios. Participants will explore a variety of fund types, including ETFs, open-ended, and closed-ended funds, and learn to distinguish between active and passive management strategies. The course will also cover essential topics such as the comparison of ETFs with traditional funds, understanding prospectuses, expense ratios, and other critical considerations, equipping attendees with the knowledge to make informed investment decisions.

6 HOURS

€ 100