

ADRIAN CUTAJAR

Online Course

THE ROLE OF THE BOARD

16, 17, 18 November 2026
13:00 to 16:00 CET

This course highlights the pivotal role of directors and corporate secretaries in the effective management and administration of a company. In an era of increasing scrutiny from regulators and shareholders, it is crucial for directors to fully understand their responsibilities, duties, rights, and obligations, as well as their relationships with other stakeholders within the organisation. Participants will gain insights into the potential liabilities directors face in cases of non-compliance or breaches of applicable laws, with an examination of recent judicial decisions. The course also emphasizes corporate governance principles, best practices, and the interpretation of key provisions of the Companies Act.

9 HOURS€ 110