UNDERSTANDING TRUSTS

23, 24 November 2026
09:30 to 12:00 CET

This two-day course provides a practical and in-depth understanding of trusts as they operate in real legal and commercial contexts. It examines the establishment of trusts and the roles, rights, and obligations of settlors, trustees, protectors, and beneficiaries, with particular focus on how these relationships function in practice.

Participants will explore the drafting and structure of trust deeds, the different types of trusts, and the applicable legislative and regulatory framework. The course also considers the use of trusts in succession planning, highlighting key risks, controls, and practical issues faced by professionals dealing with trusts in their day-to-day work.
