REPORTING DISCLOSURES EMANATING FROM THE CAPITAL MARKETS RULES

20 November 2026
10:00 to 12:00 CET

This session offers a detailed examination of the continuing disclosure obligations under Chapter 5 of the Capital Markets Rules, specifically for issuers. Participants will explore both periodic financial reporting and ad hoc disclosure requirements, with a focus on their practical application. The session is particularly relevant for equity and debt issuers listed on the main market of the Malta Stock Exchange, as well as entities considering a future listing. Attendees will gain a deeper understanding of compliance with ongoing disclosure obligations and the implications for transparency and corporate governance.
