An Introduction to ETFs and Funds

Course No 101

Open-ended funds and Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) have become a very popular, cost effective and efficient way for investors to build diversified portfolios. Funds are widely used by investors and include a wide variety of assets, such as bonds, equities, real estate and commodities. This course will focus primarily on the different types of funds available to investors ranging from Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), to open-ended and closed-ended funds. The course will contrast ETFs versus traditional funds, differentiate between active and passive management, explain the prospectus, expense ratios and other key points.
