

Part-Time/Freelance

MALTA
STOCK EXCHANGE

Content Writer / Editor

Jobsplus permit number: 96/2025

About the Job

The Malta Stock Exchange plc (the Exchange) is seeking a meticulous and detail-oriented Content Writer/ Editor to join our team on a part-time or freelance basis. The ideal candidate will be required to carefully examine, review, and improve all content created by the Exchange before it is published.

Responsibilities

- Conducting thorough research to gather accurate information pertinent to the Maltese Capital market.
- Creating engaging, informative, and well-structured content for various platforms including but not limited to website and social media platforms
- Following the brand guidelines, and relevant editorial guidelines.
- Meet necessary deadlines.
- Editing and proofreading content for grammar, punctuation, style, and accuracy.
- Assisting in developing and implementing content strategies.

Eligibility

A bachelor's degree in finance, economics, journalism, communications, or a related field, or five+ years professional experience either as a CFA/CFP or financial journalism.

Key Skills

- Exceptional command of the English language.
- Create relevant and engaging content.
- The ability to adapt the writing style to appeal to different audiences.
- Ability to work under pressure and meet tight deadlines.
- Working within a team.
- Ability to work independently and communicate effectively.
- Attention to detail to ensure error free and high-quality content.

Working Conditions

- Hybrid

Other Attributes

- Experience within the Financial industry and knowledge of SEO best practices will be considered an asset.

Interested applicants are to send an Application Letter and a detailed CV by email to The Chief Human Resources & Corporate Services Officer at asammut@borzamalta.com.mt