Catena Media launches tender process for auditor appointment

Catena Media plc (the “Company”) today announces the initiation of a public tender process for the appointment of independent external auditors for the financial year ending 31 December 2025. The process, approved by the board of directors and managed by the audit committee, invites qualified audit firms to submit their proposals.

This process was initiated in accordance with the EU Audit Regulation (EU) No. 537/2014, which mandates that public interest entities rotate their statutory auditors after a maximum engagement period of ten years. It also follows article 151A of the Maltese Companies Act.

The preferred bidder will be subject to shareholder approval at the Company’s 2025 Annual General Meeting.

Further information on the tender process, including the tender documents and applicable timelines, can be accessed on the Company’s website:
