Peter Messner steps down as Catena Media CFO

Catena Media plc today announces that Peter Messner is stepping down as Chief Financial Officer.

A process for recruiting a new CFO will be initiated. Peter Messner will hand over within six months before pursuing his career outside the sports betting and casino industry.

CEO Michael Daly comments: “Given our closer focus on the North American market, we have agreed that this is the right time to make a transition in our financial leadership. Peter has contributed hugely to our recent successes, and we thank him sincerely for his efforts.”
