Per Widerström to leave Catena Media's board of directors

Catena Media non-executive director Per Widerström is to step down from the board of directors after taking up a new role as CEO of 888 Holdings.

Widerström, who was elected to the board in May 2019, leaves Catena Media's board with immediate effect.

Göran Blomberg, Chairman of the Board of Directors, said: "Per's extensive experience and in-depth industry knowledge have greatly benefited the board's work and the strategic direction of Catena Media. On behalf of all stakeholders, we express gratitude for his contributions and wish him every success in his new role."

The board of directors will continue with six members until the 2024 annual general meeting.
