Partnership with Wolt Market in Malta

As part of its commitment to bring even more convenience to its customers’ online grocery shopping experience, the Group has entered into a first-of-its-kind partnership with the delivery-only store company Wolt Market. Wolt Market, a delivery-only store company, is a retail facility with no public access but is only limited to the fulfillment of online orders. Wolt Market, a leader in this segment, operates more than 50 such delivery-only stores globally.

The Group anticipates that this partnership will bring with it better choice and access to the Group’s products, including Coop branded products, still at affordable prices and delivered in Malta in 30 minutes or less.
