COVID-19 – Information to the Market

The Company wishes to inform its bondholders that a dedicated support function has been set up through which bondholders and other interested parties may reach out to the Company directly with any concerns that they may have in connection with their investment in the Company's 4.35% unsecured bonds 2026. The Company may be contacted via email on investor-relations@hudson.com.mt – further information in this regard is available at <https://hudson.com.mt/investor-relations/investors-helpline/>.

The Company also confirms that, in parallel with all possible progressive actions being taken across the Hudson Group to ensure the long term sustainability of its business, it remains firmly committed to honouring the due and punctual performance of all obligations undertaken by the Company in terms of the prospectus dated 23rd March 2018, specifically the payment of all amounts of principal and interest payable to bondholders as and when due. Accordingly, bondholders shall be receiving settlement in full of the next interest payment on its due date, being 6th April 2020.
