Corinthia Grand Hotel Astoria Brussels

International Hotel Investments p.l.c. (IHI) announces the reopening of Brussels' historic Grand Hotel Astoria situated on Rue Royale, after completing an extensive €150 million reconstruction and refurbishment. The property opens today amidst the group's global expansion as Corinthia Grand Hotel Astoria Brussels.

Following an extraordinary journey of rebirth, the hotel, a Belle Époque landmark originally opened in 1910, now featuring 126 rooms and suites, and a spa, reaffirms its position as the cornerstone of Belgian hospitality.

Corinthia Brussels partners with two, Michelin-starred, Belgian chefs namely Christophe Hardiquet and David Martin, with dining concepts; Le Petit bon bon and Palais Royal, while Belgian mixologist Hannah Van Ongevalle opens her first solo bar concept, Under The Stairs. The subterranean 1200 square-metre spa features treatments by Sisley and a fitness centre by training instructor Paul Tucker.

QP, a Corinthia Group company, handled design and project management, while the Group's hotel operating arm, Corinthia Hotels, now assumes the responsibility to manage the operation at the highest levels of luxury travel.

The Hotel is owned by NLI Holdings, a company registered in Jersey, in which IHI has a 50% stake.
