Information to the Market

The Company's majority shareholder LifeStar Holding plc ("LSH") issued an announcement on the 08 October 2026, wherein it announced that its majority shareholder Investar plc informed that it was seeking a partner to acquire a shareholding. As announced by LSH today, Investar plc ("Investar") has communicated to LSH that it has been contacted by a number of parties who have expressed interest and have requested to conduct due diligence prior to confirming their interest in each, or any of, LSH and the Company.

In this respect, LSH requests the Company to seek authorisation from its shareholders to furnish and disclose information, including unpublished price-sensitive information, to bona fide offeror(s), the corresponding bona fide transferor and their respective advisers, as may be necessary to enable such:

(i) prospective bona fide offeror(s) to make, confirm, withdraw or modify any offer(s) for a Substantial Shareholding (as defined in Capital Markets Rule 5.174); and

(ii) prospective bona fide transferor of a Substantial to evaluate, negotiate and/or confirm any said offer(s), in each case, with any necessary assistance from their respective advisers.

For such purpose, and in accordance with the Capital Markets Rules, the Company is required to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting (the "EGM").

Extraordinary General Meeting to be Held

The Company announces that the EGM will be held on Thursday 10 December 2026 at 14:00hrs at the Company's head offices situated at LifeStar, Testaferrata Street, Ta' Xbiex.

The following resolution will be presented for the shareholders' consideration at the EGM:
