Earlier today, Malta International Airport p.l.c. held its 33rd Annual General Meeting, which was attended by the company’s chairman and board of directors, members of the management team, and shareholders.

In his opening address, Chairman Nikolaus Gretzmacher described 2024 as a remarkable year marked by strong traffic growth. Mr Gretzmacher added that the company’s purpose goes beyond impressive figures, emphasising that continued investment in Malta International Airport for an improved guest experience remains a priority. Mr. Gretzmacher thanked shareholders for their confidence in the company, reaffirming the team’s commitment to achieving the 2025 forecast of 9.3 million passenger movements and a net profit of €48 million.
